You are of most help when you are specific with your descriptive statements and when you give examples. Please return this form to your child college counselor prior to September 20th or as soon as possible thereafter. Feel free to attach additional sheets if the space provided is not sufficient.

- A. Tell the good story. Colleges are particularly interested in an anecdote about your child relative maturity, character, leadership or service, or anything else you deem important. What first comes to mind that would help a college to distinguish him from a number?

- B. What is the first word or two that comes to mind as you recall your child's work ethic and self-motivation?

- C. Please describe any academic change/progression/growth that you have observed in your child during his/her years in high school?

D. Please tell us about your child's hobbies, special talents, skills, awards in academics, athletics, fine art, etc. Please be as specific as possible.

E. For what are you most proud of your child? Please explain.

F. What surprises you about your child? Please explain.

G. Are there any special factors, experiences, background information that we should know in writing a letter of recommendation?
